What were the Fund costs for the last year?

(based on a hypothetical $10,000 investment)

Class Name	Costs of a $10,000 investment	Costs paid as a percentage of a $10,000 investment
Class VI	$86	0.85%

How did the Fund perform last year and what affected its performance?

Class VI shares of GMO Emerging Markets Fund returned +3.07% (net) for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2025, as compared with +10.07% for the MSCI Emerging Markets Index.

China was the largest detractor from a mix of underweight country allocation and stock selection, including underweight positioning toward Consumer Discretionary, Communication Services, and Information Technology. Sector allocation was also a challenge, including overweight positioning toward Energy.

Decisions which added to benchmark relative performance included stock selection in Industrials and Consumer Staples. Underweight positioning toward Korean Information Technology also added value.

Performance data quoted represents past performance and is not indicative of future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance data may be lower or higher than the performance data provided herein. To obtain performance information up to the most recent month-end, visit www.gmo.com. Performance shown is net of all fees after reimbursement from GMO. Returns would have been lower had certain expenses not been reimbursed during the periods shown and do not include the effect of taxes on distributions and redemptions. The performance information shown above only includes purchase premiums and/or redemption fees in effect as of February 28, 2025.

MSCI data may not be reproduced or used for any other purpose. MSCI provides no warranties, has not prepared or approved this report, and has no liability hereunder.

The gross expense ratio of 0.90% for Class VI is equal to the Total Annual Operating Expenses set forth in the Fund's most recent prospectus dated June 30, 2024. The net expense ratio of 0.79% reflects the reduction of expenses from fee reimbursements. The fee reimbursements will continue until at least June 30, 2025 and may not be terminated prior to this date without the action or consent of the Trust's Board of Trustees. Elimination of this reimbursement will result in higher fees and lower performance.
