How did the Fund perform last year and what affected its performance?

Although the Fund is not managed relative to any securities market index or benchmark, a discussion of the Fund’s performance relative to the Bloomberg U.S. Securitized Index is included for comparative purposes.

Class VI shares of GMO Opportunistic Income Fund returned +7.07% (net) for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2025, as compared with +6.56% for the Bloomberg U.S. Securitized Index.

Absolute performance was driven by gains from the portfolio's Commercial Mortgage-Backed Securities (CMBS), Residential Mortgage-Backed Securities (RMBS), and Student Loan sectors, which contributed positively. The portfolio's Collateralized Loan Obligations (CLO) and Small Balance Commercials also posted gains during the fiscal year, while Credit Spread Hedging positions contributed negatively.

Performance data quoted represents past performance and is not indicative of future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance data may be lower or higher than the performance data provided herein. To obtain performance information up to the most recent month-end, visit www.gmo.com. Performance shown is net of all fees after reimbursement from GMO. Returns would have been lower had certain expenses not been reimbursed during the periods shown and do not include the effect of taxes on distributions and redemptions. The performance information shown above only includes purchase premiums and/or redemption fees in effect as of February 28, 2025.

*The Bloomberg U.S. Securitized + Index is a composite benchmark computed by GMO and comprised of the J.P. Morgan U.S. 3 Month Cash Index through December 30, 2016 and the Bloomberg U.S. Securitized Index thereafter.

The gross expense ratio of 0.51% for Class VI is equal to the Total Annual Operating Expenses set forth in the Fund's most recent prospectus dated June 30, 2024. The net expense ratio of 0.48% reflects the reduction of expenses from fee reimbursements. The fee reimbursements will continue until at least June 30, 2025 and may not be terminated prior to this date without the action or consent of the Trust's Board of Trustees. Elimination of this reimbursement will result in higher fees and lower performance.
