GMO Usonian Japan Value Creation Investment Fund - a sub-fund of GMO INVESTMENTS ICAV

Class C GBP Distributing (ISIN: IE00BLR74M00)

Managed by Waystone Management Company (IE) Limited (the “Manager”)

Objectives and Investment Policy

The fund's investment objective is to seek long term capital appreciation. Under normal circumstances, the fund invests in equities (shares) of Japanese companies of any capitalisation, industry, or sector that the investment adviser believes are attractively valued, profitable and conservatively capitalised to reflect a strong asset base and a low debt level. While the Fund invests primarily in equities of Japanese issuers and issuers domiciled outside of Japan but whose securities primarily trade on Japanese exchanges, it may invest in securities of Japanese issuers on any regulated market or the securities of issuers located anywhere in the world, whose primary business market is Japan. The Investment Adviser's investment process is a bottom-up approach that seeks to identify companies with attractive valuations. The factors considered and models used by the Investment Adviser may change over time. The fund may also invest in other investment funds. The fund is actively managed and does not manage the fund to, or control the fund's risk relative to, any securities index or securities benchmark. The fund uses the TOPIX Total Return Index (the “Index”) for performance comparison purposes only (the “Comparator Index”). Although the fund's securities may be components of the Comparator Index, the Investment Advisor may or may not invest in securities not included in the Comparator Index. The fund may use instruments whose value is determined by changes in the value of the underlying assets they represent (derivatives). Derivatives may be used for the reduction of risk. You may sell your shares usually on each business day (generally, a day on which banks in Dublin and London and Japan and the New York Stock Exchange are open) by sending your request to State Street Fund Services (Ireland) Limited before 2.00 pm (Irish time) on the preceding business day. For more information about the investment policy, see “Investment Objectives and Policies of the Funds” in the fund's prospectus available at www.gmo.com. Recommendation: this fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within the short term.

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk category is based on the historical data of the share class and, where sufficient historical data of the share class is not available, such data is supplemented with data from one or more of the following: another share class within the Fund, an appropriate index and/or other funds or products managed by the investment adviser that implement the same strategy. The stated risk category may not be a reliable indicator of the future risk profile of the fund and cannot be guaranteed to remain unchanged. This risk categorisation may change over time.

The numerical scale is complex. For example, 2 is not twice as risky as 1. The gap between 1 and 2 might not be the same as the gap between 5 and 6. A category 1 fund is not a risk-free investment – the risk of losing your money may be small, but the chance of making gains is also limited.

The fund is in category 5 because of the higher range and frequency of price movements of the underlying investments made. Historically there has been a greater fluctuation in the price of shares of such funds than other funds (such as money market funds).

Risks materially relevant to the fund which may not be adequately captured by the indicator:

The fund may not achieve its investment objective and the value of shares in the fund may fall. The market price of a security may decline due to factors affecting the issuer, its industry or the economy and markets generally.

Because the fund focuses its investments in equity securities of Japanese companies, the fund will be more susceptible to events or factors affecting these companies, and the market prices of its portfolio securities may be more volatile than those of funds that are more diversified.

Geopolitical and other events may disrupt markets and adversely affect global economies and markets. Those events as well as other changes in economic and political conditions could adversely affect the value of the fund's investments.

Low trading volume, lack of a market maker, large size of position or legal restrictions may limit or prevent the fund from selling securities or closing derivative positions at desirable prices.

The use of derivatives involves the risk that their value may not move as expected relative to the value of the relevant underlying assets, rates or indices. Derivatives also present other risks, including market risk, liquidity risk, currency risk and counterparty risk. The risk of loss resulting from the use of derivatives is potentially unlimited. Derivatives markets are highly volatile.

See also the description of the risks applicable to the fund in the section titled “Risk Factors” in the fund's prospectus.
