MAJOR PERFORMANCE DRIVERS

The J.P. Morgan EMBI Global Diversified (EMBIG-D) benchmark returned -1.3% for the period (since January 13, 2026 through the end of the first quarter). The index's spread over Treasuries widened by 36 bps, finishing at 289 bps, resulting in a spread return of -1.3%. Meanwhile, the 10-year Treasury yield rose by 14 bps, ending at 4.32%, and contributing to an interest rate return of 0.0%.

The portfolio experienced positive alpha from both country and security selection for the period. Within country selection, an overweight position in Venezuela (+19.7%) significantly contributed to alpha due to its strong performance. Smaller positive contributions came from overweight positions in Gabon (+9.3%), Mexico (0.0%), Argentina (-0.5%), and Colombia (-0.2%). Meanwhile, overweight positions in Lebanon (-17.3%), Egypt (-6.2%), and Ukraine (-8.0%) detracted from country selection alpha.

In terms of security selection alpha among in-index countries, Venezuela and Peru were significant positive contributors, while Mexico and Colombia detracted. Among out-of-index countries, Tunisia and Thailand made notable positive contributions, whereas Albania and South Korea were significant detractors. Within the quasi-sovereign category, Venezuela and Brazil were the top contributors, while India and Mexico were major detractors.

As of the end of the period, the portfolio's largest overweights are in Venezuela, Colombia, and Turkey, while the largest underweights are in Indonesia, China, and Malaysia.

Risks: Risks associated with investing in the Fund may include: (1) Credit Risk: the risk that the issuer or guarantor of a fixed income investment or the obligor of an obligation underlying an asset-backed security will be unable or unwilling to satisfy its obligation to pay principal and interest or otherwise to honor its obligations in a timely manner; (2) Market Risk - Fixed Income Investments: the market price of a fixed income investment can decline due to a number of market-related factors, including rising interest rates and widening credit spreads or decreased liquidity stemming from the market's uncertainty about the value of a fixed income investment (or class of fixed income investments); and (3) Illiquidity Risk: Low trading volume, lack of a market maker, large position size, or legal restrictions may limit or prevent the Fund from selling particular securities or closing derivative positions at desirable prices. For a more complete discussion of these and other risks, please consult the Fund's Prospectus. Performance Returns: Annualized Returns may include the impact of purchase premiums and redemption fees. The GMO Trust funds are distributed in the United States by Funds Distributor LLC. GMO and Funds Distributor LLC are not affiliated.

Net Expense Ratio: 0.75%; Gross Expense Ratio: 1.64% Net Expense Ratio reflects the reduction of expenses from fee reimbursements. The fee reimbursements will continue until at least 30 June 2026. Elimination of this reimbursement will result in higher fees and lower performance. Gross Expense Ratio is equal to the Funds Total Annual Operating Expenses set forth in the Funds most recent prospectus dated 30 June 2025.

EMERGING COUNTRY DEBT SHARES FUND

Quarterly Investment Review

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

The GMO Emerging Country Debt Shares Fund's objective is total return in excess of that of its benchmark, the J.P. Morgan Emerging Markets Bond Index Global Diversified (EMBIG-D). The Fund invests substantially all of its assets in Class III shares of GMO Emerging Country Debt Fund, which invests primarily in external debt of sovereigns and quasi-sovereigns.

GMO's Emerging Country Debt team focuses on bottom-up issue selection, seeking to find issues with similar default characteristics but better long-term total return potential than the issues in EMBIG-D. We believe that our approach provides value-oriented clients with long-term investment objectives a significantly higher likelihood of outperforming the EMBIG-D than the approaches employed by other emerging debt managers who focus on economic forecasting, market timing, and other macro/top-down approaches.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

An investor should consider the fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses before investing. This and other important information can be found in the funds prospectus. To obtain a prospectus please visit www.gmo.com. Read the prospectus carefully before investing.

Benchmark(s): The J.P. Morgan EMBI (Emerging Markets Bond) Global Diversified Index is an independently maintained and widely published uniquely weighted U.S. dollar-denominated emerging markets sovereign index comprised of Brady bonds, Eurobonds, traded loans, and market debt instruments issued by sovereign and quasi-sovereign entities.
